

LISTOWEL MILITARY TATTOO

Saturday 2nd May at 5 pm

D-Day

The Allied Invasion of Normandy on 6th June, 1944, the largest seaborne invasion in the world, led to the liberation of France from Nazi control, and contributed to an Allied victory in the war.

Lecturer :

James Holland

A historian of the Second World War, James has published over 10 books on World War II, both fact & fiction. He has written and appeared on several historical documentary films for the BBC, including 'Battle of Britain - The Real Story'.

Admission - €5.00

This event is organised by Listowel Military Tattoo Committee in conjunction with the Seanchaí Centre.

OTHER EVENTS AT THE SEANCHAI

Listowel Rambling House

This informal evening of traditional music, song, dance & storytelling takes place on the last Thursday of every month. Tea/coffee served and admission is free.

Listowel Writers' Week

Listowel Writers' Week runs from Wednesday May 27th to Sunday May 31st and the Seanchaí Centre will host a number of events during the Festival.

For details on all events visit www.writersweek.ie

Heritage Week 2015

National Heritage Week runs from 22nd to 30th August.

For further information on the above and other events at the Seanchaí Centre visit our website www.kerrywritersmuseum.com.

Sign up to our online newsletter to keep informed about our events by e-mailing
info@kerrywritersmuseum.com

24 The Square, Listowel, Co. Kerry.

History Lecture Programme 2015

Tel. (068) 22212
info@kerrywritersmuseum.com
www.kerrywritersmuseum.com

kerrywritersmuseum

Tuesday 3rd March

The Life & Times of J D Bouchier

James D Bouchier was born in Bruff Co. Limerick. He taught at Eton, was the London Times Correspondent in the Balkans, and was influential in Balkans politics in the early 1900's.

Lecturer :

Prof. Michael Foley

Lecturer in Journalism

School of Media, Dublin City University

Tuesday 7th April

Family and 1st World War in County Kerry

How Family was instrumental in the experience and Commemoration of the First World War.

Lecturer :

Thomas Dillon

Master of Arts in History of the Family UL
Certificate in Local History from the University of Limerick.

LISTOWEL MILITARY TATTOO

Tuesday 28th April

Horatio Herbert Kitchener

Field Marshal Horatio Herbert Kitchener, 1st Earl Kitchener was born near Ballylongford, Co. Kerry on 24th June 1850. As a senior British Army officer and colonial administrator he won fame for his imperial campaigns in the Sudan & in the Boar War, and later played a central role in the early part of World War I.

Lecturer :

Padraig O Concubhair

Retired teacher & author of 3 books on history.
Former president of Kerry Archeological & Historical Society

Wednesday 29th April

Aspects of North Kerry's dimension in the struggle between Napoleon & Wellington

Lecturer :

Dr. Declan Downey

Lecturer in Modern European and Asian History in the School of History & Archives, University College Dublin.

LISTOWEL MILITARY TATTOO

Thursday 30th April

Kerry and the Dardanelles

The story of Kerry Soldiers at Gallipoli in the First World War

Lecturer :

Thomas Dillon

Master of Arts in History of the Family UL
Certificate in Local History from the University of Limerick.

ALL LECTURES COMMENCE AT 7.30 PM
ADMISSION TO EACH LECTURE - €5.00

SEANCHAÍ HISTORY SOCIETY

For just €20.00 you can become a member of the Seanchaí History Society which will give you access to all lectures & historical events at the Seanchaí Centre for a 12 month period.

For further details e-mail us at info@kerrywritersmuseum.com or

Telephone (068) 22212